Region III Presents "Winter Showcase" at The Northside Gallery, Chattanooga

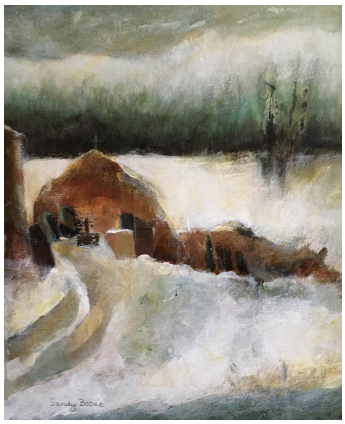

Helen Burton

Time's Remnants by Marie Spaeder Haas

Kicking off the New Year 2021 with a "splash," 14 distinguished artists from the Chattanooga area have 50 outstanding watermedia paintings on display in celebration of the TnWS 50th Anniversary this year. The three-month exhibition of a variety of subjects and styles of watermedia opens on January 1 and closes March 23 in the Northside Gallery, and continues online until March 31!

Artists in this exhibit are from various cities within the Chattanooga area: Marie Spaeder Haas in Ocoee; Helen Burton and Jennie Kirkpatrick in Cleveland; Lupina Haney, Irma Herzog, and Mary Ahern in Ooltewah; Carol Ruocco in Hixson; Harriet Chipley on Lookout Mountain and Sandy Boone on Signal Mountain; with Chattanoogans Mark Cobbe, Ann Rutledge, Richard Rice, Faye Ives, and Durinda Cheek in Ringgold, GA. Their membership in TnWS spans more than 20 years, with several recently joining. Five have the honor of Signature Membership.

The Northside Gallery was founded a year ago by Vera Susan Chamlee, Joyce Jones, and Ellyn Biven, who are members of the Northside Presbyterian Church (pastor Paul Rader). They were inspired to involve the community in church life in some way. All three, being artists, naturally turned to the arts and local artists. Providing a venue for them to display and sell their work seemed a win-win situation. The walls of the 100+-year-old church provide a great backdrop for the beautiful artwork. The congregation and other visitors enjoy and purchase the paintings.

Located in North Chattanooga, an art community in itself, The Northside Gallery is at 923 Mississippi Avenue at the corner of Tremont. It is open 9am to 3pm on weekdays. The entrance is on the left end of the building in the parking lot. For information, call 423-266-1766 or visit: info@northwidepresbyterian.org. The art exhibits are also featured on the Northside Gallery Facebook page.
